

Last Will and Testament

Being of sound mind (statement which does not bear close examination). I _____ do hereby record my last will and testament.

Knowing that _____, my _____ (spouse, sibling or keeper) hasn't the least appreciation for, or for that matter knowledge of my extensive fabric collection, which collection is suitable deposited in sundry places for safe keeping. Knowing also that _____ has already notified the local dumpster that should I precede my beloved to the Great Quilt Shop in the Sky, to pick up and dispose of the before mentioned collection "willie-nillie", the thought of which causes me a most severe case of hives.

Therefore, I do will this collection and all other collections related to it, to my dearest friend and fellow fabric preservationist _____. It is my wish that _____ upon hearing of my death and obtaining clear proof that I did not manage (although goodness knows I tried), to take it with me, would come to my home post haste, before the dumpster, search out my collection which is similarly stored. That said collection should be rescued and stacked in my quilting studio, along with my sewing machines, frames, old buttons, lace, patterns, quilts, dolls, and works in progress.

And after this has been done that refreshments should be purchased for my friends, not yet departed, which friends are also _____'s friends, and every last one shall be in that room and they shall hold a wake and say lovely and kind things about me until they run out and then they shall divide amongst themselves, by lot, my wonderful collection.

I shall be hovering over the very spot until this is done. _____ shall then quit this spot and close the door, leaving the car, the house, all the stocks and bonds and other worthy trivialities to those who don't understand.

This is my wish in the matter.
